8 CASE STUDY :Succession Planning

Mr. Khanna owned a family business, which is into manufacturing of electric generators. He being a single child to his parents, immediately took over the business after the sudden death of his father in 1980. In spite of being a B.Com graduate, he immediately adapted to the business processes and succeeded in running the business successfully. Mr. Khanna has two children – Ritesh and Ria. Ritesh, an electrical engineer was working as a production manager in a MNC in Germany. Ria, a computer science engineer had been assisting her father in the business, till she got married to Vinod; who is also a business man.

Ria, was appreciated for having good business acumen, like her father ; but she quit working after her marriage to Vinod in 2010. Vinod is also known for his intelligence and diplomacy in dealing with his clients. In 2012, after the death of Mr. Khanna, Mrs. Khanna took care of the business for a couple of months & then Ritesh was forced to take over the position of his father. Ritesh though is trying to adopt to the business, is unable to manage the business as successful as his father. Shilpa – Ritesh's wife, who is a CA by profession, has agreed to help him in his business. But employees working in the firm are now expressing their discontent and preferred Ria Vis – a – vis Ritesh. Mrs Khanna who is still the figure head is now thinking of revamping the business.

Questions :

- a. Do you think a proper succession planning would have curbed the problem? Justify. (04 Marks)
- b. Help Mrs. Khanna to design a succession planning. (04 Marks)
- c. Do you think Mrs. Khanna should also involve Ria & Vinod into the business? (04 Marks)
- d. What positions (designations) as per you, would be apt for the members (mentioned in the case) involved in management of family business? (04 Marks)
